Article 1 The Rules and Procedures of Meeting of Board of Directors have been stipulated in order to establish an effective governance system, enhance supervising capability, and strengthen management functions for the Board of Directors pursuant to the "Regulations Governing Procedures for Board of Directors Meetings of Public Companies."

Article 2 The main agenda items, operational procedures, required content of the Meeting (as defined below) minutes, public announcements and other compliance requirements in the Company's rules and procedures of meeting of Board of Directors shall comply with the rules and procedures set forth below.

Article 3 The Board of Directors shall meet at least quarterly. The reasons for calling a Board of Directors meeting (the "Meeting") shall be notified to each director at least seven (7) days in advance. In emergency circumstances, however, the Meeting may be called on shorter notice.

The notice set forth in the preceding paragraph may be effected by means of electronic transmission, after obtaining prior consent from the recipients thereof.

All matters set out in paragraph 1 of Article 12 shall be specified in the notice of the reasons for calling the Meeting; none of them may be raised by an extraordinary motion except in the case of an emergency or legitimate reason.

Article 4 The Investor Services of the Company shall be the unit in charge of handling all matters related to the proceedings of the Meeting and shall be responsible for coordinating Meeting matters, preparing agenda items for the Meetings, and shall provide sufficient pre-Meeting materials, to be sent together with the notice of the Meetings.

A director of the opinion that the pre-Meeting materials provided is insufficient in content may request the agenda working group to supplement the materials. If a director is of the opinion that materials concerning any proposal are insufficient in content, the deliberation of such proposal may be postponed by a resolution of the Board of Directors.

Article 5 When the Meeting is held, an attendance book shall be made ready for signature by directors attending the Meeting and thereafter made available for future reference. Attendance via video-conference is deemed as attendance in person.

If a director is unable to attend the Meeting, he/she may appoint one of the other directors to attend the meeting on his/her behalf by executing a power of attorney specifying the power authorized in relation to the proposals to be discussed at the Meeting. However, each attending director may only act for one of the other directors.

Article 6 The Meetings shall be held at the location and during the business hours of the Company, or at a place and time convenient to all directors and suitable for holding such the Meeting.

Article 7 Meetings shall be called and chaired by the chairperson of the board. However, the first Meeting of each newly elected Board of Directors shall be called and chaired by the director who received votes representing the largest portion of voting rights at the shareholders' meeting in which the directors were elected; if there are two or more directors so entitled to call the Meeting, they shall choose one person by and from among themselves to do so.

When the chairperson of the board is on leave or for any reason is unable to exercise the powers of the chairperson, the vice chairperson shall do so in place of the chairperson; or the vice chairperson also is on leave or for any reason is unable to act, by a director designated thereby, or, if the chairperson does not make such a designation, by a director elected by and from among themselves.

Article 8 The Investor Services shall prepare relevant materials for the directors' reference at any time during the course of the Meeting.

When holding a Meeting, the Company may, as necessary for the agenda items of the Meeting, notify personnel of relevant departments or subsidiaries to attend the Meeting as nonvoting participants. When necessary, the Company may also invite certificated public accounts, attorneys, or other professionals to attend as nonvoting participants and to make explanatory statements, provided that they shall leave the meeting when deliberation or voting takes place.

The chairperson of the Meeting shall call the Meeting to order at the scheduled time of the Meeting if a majority of the directors are present. When the time of a Meeting has arrived and one-half of all the board directors are not present, the Meeting chairperson may announce postponement of the Meeting time, provided that only two postponements, in combined total of not more than one hour, may be made. If the quorum is still not met after two such delays, the chairperson may re-call the Meeting in accordance with the procedures provided for in Article 3 hereof.

The term "all the board directors" as referred to in the preceding paragraph shall include only the directors in active duty as such.

Article 9 The Company shall record on audio or video tape the entire proceedings of a Meeting, and preserve the recordings for at least five years, in electronic form or otherwise.

If before the end of the preservation period referred to in the preceding paragraph a lawsuit arises with respect to a resolution of a Meeting, the relevant evidentiary audio or video data and information recorded in the Meetings shall be continuously retained until the conclusion of the proceedings of such lawsuit.

Where a Meeting is held via video-conference, the data contained in the audio or video recordings of that Meeting shall constitute a part of the Meeting minutes and shall be securely retained throughout the duration of the Company.

If at any time during the proceeding of a Meeting, the directors sitting at the Meeting are not more than half of the directors present at the Meeting, then upon motion by the directors sitting at the Meeting, the chairperson shall declare a suspension of Meeting, in which case Article 8 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Article 14 Except as otherwise stated in the SEA or in the Company Act, a resolution on a matter at a Meeting requires the approval of a majority of the directors present at the Meeting that shall be attended by a majority of all directors.

If there is amendment to or substitute for an agenda item, the chairperson shall decide the sequence of voting for such original agenda item, the amendment, and the substitute. If any one of them has been adopted, the others shall be deemed vetoed and no further voting will be necessary.

The result of voting shall be announced at the Meeting and placed on record.

Directors who object to the results of voting may make a written statement, and such written statement shall be recorded in the minutes of the Meeting.

Article 15 If any director or a juristic person represented by a director is an interested party with respect to any agenda item, the director shall state the important aspects of the interested party relationship at the respective meeting. When the relationship is likely to prejudice the interests of the company, the director may not participate in discussion or voting on that agenda item, and further, shall enter recusal during discussion and voting on that item and may not act as another director's proxy to exercise voting rights on that matter.
