

- The Company holds related training courses each year covering insider trading prevention and Procedures for Handling Material Inside Information, etc. New employees are required to receive orientation training by the HR department.
- The Company holds face-to-face ethical management courses irregularly. In 2023, 30,778 personnel received such training for an aggregate total of 14,164 hours which covered insider trading prevention and Procedures for Handling Material Inside Information, etc.